

Expectations from the Play Director, Producer, and Music Director

As we begin rehearsing for The Forgotten Carols Christmas production we wanted to communicate our expectations as leaders. It is our goal to lead you, always pursuing Godly excellence. With this thought we have listed key points that we believe will help us achieve our goal.

- Cast and choir should live their lives above reproach
- Respecting one another's gifts is a must
- The Forgotten Carols leadership team should be on your personal prayer list as we long to bring out God's best in you as well as to make Godly key decisions
- All rehearsals should be attended as noted on the rehearsal schedule
- Cast and choir should be ON TIME to all scheduled rehearsals
- Director Tucker should be contacted for any emergency that would keep you from attending a rehearsal
- Appropriately practicing your part in preparation for rehearsals is critical
- Appropriate attire should be worn to rehearsals. No visual distractions.
